

Assignments:

1. Practice the pole position for a week by starting your conversations in the ML and keep a record on what happened.
2. a. If you have trouble having bilingual conversations, make a plan on how to practice that. Ask a friend to practice together and switch languages. You can also practice with other languages than your DL and ML.

b. Ask someone you know that understands your ML but doesn't speak it and where you normally speak to in the DL to have bilingual conversations. Use assertive demand as discussed in this lesson. Keep a record on how it went.
